Episode 27 | Strengths-Based Approach for ECE Programs

Positive Spin VT, LLC

Positive Spin VT's mission is to collaborate with early childhood programs, directors, and community leaders to create strategies to develop growth mindsets and optimistic outlooks. As a result, early childhood education programs can create a strengths-based approach to strategic planning, staff meetings, life balance, creative-solution-seeking, and energy.

What is Appreciative Inquiry?

The Appreciative Inquiry Model is one of the key positive organizational approaches to development and collective learning. The Model has blossomed into one of the most influential movements for positive organizational development in recent decades.
